Required for September 2022

An exciting and rare opportunity has come up to lead in the early years at Scott Wilkie Primary. This is an opportunity to work in an exceptional trust, working in collaboration with the T4W teaching school at Hallsville.

Key Responsibilities:

- Leading early years working closely with the AHT leading KS1
- Leading on the planning and implementation of indoor and outdoor provision ensuring excellent access to all areas of learning
- Quality of education throughout the early years

Governors are looking for a candidate who has:

- a passion and drive for EYFS
- at least 3 years' experience in teaching
- evidence of excellent competence in core teaching standards
- is able to demonstrate outstanding practice
- good knowledge and understanding of the RWI/Talk for Write programmes (preferable)
- a deep knowledge and understanding of how children in EYFS learn
- is creative, innovative and reflective
- has high expectations of children and staff
- is capable of inspiring, challenging, supporting and empowering others
- is well read and proactive in regard to their own professional development

We can offer the right candidate:

- An exciting opportunity to support the senior leadership team in its endeavor in offering its pupils a world class education in the early years
- An opportunity to work with EYFs leads, across the trust, sharing and developing best practice
- A professional team with a commitment to providing an outstanding education to its pupils

- A governing body that is committed to making a difference
